Named after Dr. Perkins, late mom, the Malissa B. Perkins Scholarship has afforded over 17 inner-city high school students opportunity to go to college. As a part of our Positive Alternative Initiatives to encourage and congratulate children and youth living in Ward 5, World Missions EXTENSION Center will partner with Councilman Harry "Tommy" Thomas in sponsoring this year's Malissa B. Perkins Scholarship Awards Breakfast/Ceremony/Rally. The Scholarship is designed to honor the Scholastic achievements of children and youth in grades Kgn to 12th for their academic achievement and community service. Attach last year's application.

Even though the dead line for submitting the Melissa B. Perkins Scholarship application ended on Mother's Day, we are extending the dead line to June 1st. We encourage all of our Ward 5 high schools/parents/friends and neighbors to recommend talented deserving high school seniors, who are making scholarly accomplishments to apply. Attach application here.
